ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Ed Tywoniak is Associate Professor of Communication and Chair of the department of Communication at Saint Mary's College of California, where he has served on the faculty in the School of Liberal Arts for over 30 years. Professor Tywoniak also holds the position of Faculty Fellow for Curriculum and Technology, and is Senior Research Fellow and Director of the W.M. Keck Digital Culture Research Lab. Dr. Tywoniak completed undergraduate studies at Saint Mary's in 1975 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology. He went on to earn an MFA in Electronic Music Composition from the Center for Contemporary Music at Mills College, and a doctorate in Educational Leadership at Technology from the Institute for Catholic Educational Leadership at the University of San Francisco. He is a member and past chair of the Division for Communication and the Future of the National Communication Association, and is a Trustee of the Institute of General Semantics, a member of the Board of Directors of the Media Ecology Association, and a member of the Board of Trustees of the School of Applied Theology of the Berkeley Graduate Theology Union.

ABOUT THE BOOK:

In the spirit of Steve Jobs and Moneyball, Elon Musk is both an illuminating and authorized look at the extraordinary life of one of Silicon Valley's most exciting, unpredictable, and ambitious entrepreneurs - a real-life Tony Stark - and a fascinating exploration of the renewal of American invention and its new "makers"

Elon Musk spotlights the technology and vision of Elon Musk, the renowned entrepreneur and inovator behind SpaceX, Tesla, and SolarCity. Ashlee Vance captures the full spectacle and arc of the genius's life and work, from his tumultuous upbringing in South African and flight to the United States to his dramatic technical innovations and entrepreneurial pursuits.
