

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 2026

Athenian Dialogue

What is an Athenian Dialogue?

Dialogues are conversations in which clerks share their experience and understanding relating to the ideas of the author and the relevance of those ideas to their public leadership role.

9:00 a.m to 3:30 p.m.

(with working lunch)

Mystic Marriott Hotel
625 North Rd. (Rte. 117)
Groton, CT 06340

Earn 3 points towards
CMC or MMC after completion of an assessment.
Book must be read beforehand.

$150.00

Includes a delicious lunch!
Does not include book.
Obtain the book on your own.

Join Connecticut's own Athenian Dialogue Facilitator and Wolcott Town Clerk, Karen Mowad, for a fun day of learning and an in-depth discussion of this bestselling author's guide to reshaping how you view relationships, influence, and your own inner strength. Mel Robbins's The Let Them Theory shows how two simple words—"Let Them"—can free you from others' opinions and what you can't control, helping you reclaim your energy, confidence, relationships, and the path to happiness and success.

Registration Form

Print Your Name: _____ Town/State: _____

Email: _____ Cell Phone #: _____

Print Emergency Contact Name and Phone #: _____

Proceeds to benefit the New England Assn. City Town Clerks conference in 2029.

Enclose with $150 check payable to "NEACTC-CON" and mail to:

Carol Anderson, City Clerk, 140 Main St., Torrington, CT 06790

Questions may be emailed to carol_anderson@torringtonct.org